lengthy article protesting against the plan, as a scheme to defraud and slave for the season, such ignorant emigrants as may fall into the hands of the company's agents, who are now in New York for the purpose of supplying a cargo of emigrants to the South. The attention of the military authorities in Montgomery has been called to the subject and some interference with the game is expected.

The President has just issued an order releasing from Fort Fulaski the rebel Secretary of War, Geddon, and Judge Magrath, of South Carolina. The order did not emanate from the Adjutant General's Department, but came direct from the President.

A special to the Herald dated Washington 27th, says:

The contractor at Ford's theatre has finished his twenty-leght thousand dollar job of remodeling that building, and has turned it over to the authorities. It is now ready for rebel relics.

The commission between the United States and Columba, was increased. has turned it over to the authorities. It is now ready for rebel relics.

The commission between the United States and Columbia, was inaugurated to-day by the appearance of Col. Biddell, for the United States, and General Salzar, for Columbia, with Sir Frediterick Bruce, the British Minister, as empire. The first case argued was that of Augustus Fretz who owned the Ocean House near the Panama Railroad depot, and which was destroyed by the mob in April 1856. His loss was about $30,000. Mr. Fretz is now dead, but his heirs claim this amount. It was objected that the case was not before the commission, under the treaty, as it could not take jurisdiction on a claim when the claimant was domiciled in New Granada.

Mr. J. M. Carlisle, for Columbia, argued that Fretz's ownership of the hotel domiciled him at Panama.
Mr. S. Cox argued that he never lost his domicile by simply owning the hotel in Panama, and further, that by the treaty of 1849, he had official protection as a citizen of the United States.

Prime quality 6
Ordinary quality 5 7 50@ 8 00 5 000 5 50

The demand for Beef Cattle was more active this week, and prices were about thin and coarse beeves below the considered rate.

Milch cows command the same high prices which were paid for good cows during the past three months, but poor stock is not easily sold.

Veal calves are more plenty.

Sheep show a marked improvement over last weeks rates, caused by the falling off in supply and the increased demand. The prices of sheep at the close ruled about a cent higher, at 6% a $% per pound, and lambs % cent higher at 7alce pee pound.

Swine are more plenty and as the demand was not sufficient to clear the market of all the stock, prices have further declined during the week with a large number remaining unsold at the close. Corn fed swine commanded at the close from 14 to 14% or expend for live and from 14 to 14% or expend
